Impress your friends and family with the incredible meals you'll know how to make in the great outdoors BUY NOW and let your customer become addicted to this incredible BOOK Imagine this: You're at a campsite 10,000 feet up in the Third Mono Creek Recess of the high Sierras. You have no refrigerator, no food processor, no non-stick cookware, no measuring spoons, no pepper mill, no sea salt. How are you going to cook a meal that is imaginative, delightful, and delicious? That's what The Leave-No-Crumbs Camping Cookbook is all about. Rick Greenspan and Hal Kahn show anyone who loves the outdoors how to make homemade pizza, braid challah, wrap poached trout in a sushi roll, and even make dumplings for Chinese dim sum at their campsite. Campers who have never cooked anything more complicated than s'mores might feel uncertain about tackling chocolate mousse in the wild, but Greenspan and Kahn have three decades of experience teaching camp-out cooking. "We've taught people who could barely boil water," they say. And they are reassuring about trailside mishaps. If your grilled trout falls into the fire, take it out, brush off the ash, and rename the dish Cajun Blackened Trout. If the eggs break in their plastic container, make a dinner of crêpes, huevos rancheros, and a cake. "The point of wilderness cooking is to have fun," say Greenspan and Kahn, "not worry if the Académie Française is looking over your shoulder." You'll find recipes for soups and stews; fruit, vegetable, and tofu dishes; pilafs, risottos, and polenta; pasta, noodles, and dumplings; sauces and schmears (that's Yiddish for spreads); pancakes, crêpes, and soufflés; pizza and quiche. An entire chapter is devoted to trout, and the book even includes a recipe for chocolate cake. There are instructions and tips for all sorts of cooking techniques, including dehydrating, baking in coals or on a camping stove, grilling, frying, and steaming. And several pages are devoted to trip planning: how much food to bring, what to look for in a camp stove, how long you can expect your cooking fuel to last. This book is perfect for car campers, backpackers, bikers, canoeists, tail-gaters, and day picnickers who want good food to be part of the outdoor experience. Camping food doesn't need to be complicated or boring! These tasty camping food ideas will make trip planning easy and will keep you looking forward to every meal. With this Simple Fast Camping Cookbook you never have to go hungry during camping and food doesn't have to bring you trouble anymore. The "standard manual" for camp cooking, this cookbook contains a series of family-tested recipes accompanied by many of variations, observations, tips and quotations. The Simple Fast Camping Cookbook is an essential item for every family's camping trip packing list. Developed and perfected through the author's personal experiences camping with friends and family, The Simple Fast Camping Cookbook combines the camping classics with a wealth of surprising new ideas to put the fun and adventure of camping into every meal. The recipes are easy to follow, menus and meal planning make trip-shopping simple... and the accompanying quotations and quips on every page only add to the enjoyment of this wonderful book. The Real Family Camping Cookbook guarantees fun and delicious campfire meals that kids will ask for every time... and remember all their lives. Whether you're taking the kids camping for a weekend, a week or even longer, this is the perfect addition to your gear - offering delicious, easy-to-make food the whole family will love. Camping is all about simplicity, being outdoors and taking the best from your surroundings. Away from the humdrum routine that cooking for a family at home becomes, Tiff and Jim Easton show how outdoor cooking can be a great adventure. Wake up and try

Barbecued Strawberry Croissants, for example, made with fresh, local strawberries in the early morning sunshine; cook Fish Kebabs for lunch after a long walk along the beach; make a Lamb & Aubergine Tagine to eat around a campfire as the sun sets; and share Chocolate Fondue with Toasted Fruit & Marshmallows afterwards. Use the meal plans, shopping lists and tips on preparing ahead to make your campsite cooking wonderfully simple. And discover recipes that make the best of the fresh, local produce available - whether it's locally caught fresh fish or foraged mushrooms. You may have to compromise on comfort, and you may have to walk across a muddy field to get to a cold shower, but with mouth-watering meals, cooked using a few pots and pans from home, you'll be able to sit back and enjoy time with your friends and family. With over 85 family-friendly feasts that all work on a gas stove, barbecue or open fire, this book is an indispensable accessory to any
